Condemnation-free Conditions

Romans 8:1

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Condemnation-free Conditions

Walking "after the flesh" rather than "after the Spirit"—what does that mean?

Why do some, whose lives resemble more flesh than Spirit, profess to be "in Christ Jesus"?

Is it reasonable to live in a way that is self-gratifying ("after the flesh") yet still expect "no condemnation"?

Are there certain conditions which must be met for one to be without condemnation or condemnation-free?

Does this scriptural verse provide criteria for the state of being free of condemnation?:

- to those who are in Christ Jesus
- to those who do not live in pursuit of fleshly desires, but instead, pursue the desires of Great Spirit.
